ASTIGMATISM.

What It Is, and How Corrected.

Astigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the film known as the Cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent Eye Specialist, the Ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can. If your eyes need attention have DR. J. T. JOHNSON to put this wonderful instrument to use. Office hours 8:30 to 12:30; 2 to 6. 302½ S. Elm St.

AN INTERESTING PLACE.

All Citizens Would Enjoy Visiting the A. & M. College.

"Educate a negro and you lose a good field hand" has been a doctrine long preached. It has had and still has many believers. That there have been instances in which this is in a measure true, we do not doubt; but the practical work being done in the A. & M. College in this city is fast exploding the doctrine. A Telegram man made his first visit to the college yesterday and was shown through the institution by President Dudley. What he saw was surprise to him. We were first shown the class in domestic science, which embraces sewing, cooking etc. This class is in charge of Miss S. M. Parker, who is an expert and takes much interest in her work. It was the hour for work in the sewing room and much of the work shown us was of a high order, if a man may be allowed to judge of such things The model kitchen in which this class is taught the preparation of food as well as the component parts of each kind of food, is a model, indeed, and kept as clean as a pin.

We next visited the wood-working department and saw there many specimens of the handiwork of young men who are studying to make themselves useful. Notably a desk, a pulpit stand and a table inlaid with various kinds of wood, making a very pleasing effect. Specimens of lathe work shown us would do credit to a finished workman. A no less place of interest was the blacksmith shop, where all kinds of models in iron work were being turned out, some of the boys displaying rare ability in this line. Perhaps the first engine built by a colored man in this state has just been finished by Adam Watson, a colored youth from Warren county. It is about a half horse power and runs as smooth as if it were from the finest machine shop.

Then there is the agricultural department, an interesting feature of which is the handling of milk, and butter making. A. W. Curtis, who graduates in that department this term, showed us the process of separating the cream from the milk and of testing the percentage of butter fat in milk from different cows, by which he is enabled to tell in fifteen minutes after milking how much butter a cow will yield. The engine spoken of will be the graduating thesis of the man who made it. The first graduating class to be turned out from this institution since its establishment will finish at the approaching commencement. The class is composed of seven.

The A. & M. College is doing a great work for the colored race. President Dudley, a colored man of ability and scholarly attainments, has the institution well in hand and takes pride in his work. He is surrounded by a corps of efficient instructors, and the colored youth is taught higher modes of living, industrial pursuits being the keynote and watchword. They are receiving training that will enable them to take care of themselves anywhere and under any circumstances, and instruction that will fit them for a better citizenship. The instruction is founded upon principles which will eventually prove the right solution of the race problem, which is so plexing so many minds. Practical education is gaining over that which is purely theoretical for the reason that the hands are trained as well as the mind. The power to think is of little use without the capacity to act.

NEBRASKANS' PITIFUL TALE.

The Regiment Has Lost 225 Men Since February 2.

ONLY THREE HUNDRED LEFT

In Any Condition to Fight—They Petition General McArthur To Send Them Home.

By Cable to the TELEGRAM.

Manila, May 12—The first regiment of Nebraska volunteers is taking a very unusual step in petitioning their division commander, Major General McArthur, to relieve them from duty. The regiment has been badly exhausted by the campaign in which they have taken an active part, and there are not many more than three hundred of the organization left at the front. On last Sunday one hundred and sixty answered to the sick roll call.

The Nebraska men state that they have been unable to wash their clothing for months past, having been compelled all that time to sleep in their uniforms in order to be in readiness for fighting. The memorial states that since February 2nd the regiment has lost 225 men in killed and wounded, 59 since the battle of Malolos.

BLOODHOUNDS AFTER A NEGRO.

Exercises of the National Police Chiefs' Association.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Chattonooga, Tenn., May 12—In order to test the scent of bloodhounds and their ability to run down fugitives, a negro, known to the dogs and at no time in danger of attack by them, was started along the Tennessee river today, with an hour's start, and seven of the hounds placed upon his track. He succeeded in running several miles before the dogs came up with him. The test was part of the exercises of the National Police Chiefs' Association Convention, and is frequently made.

IMPRISONED FOR BIGAMY.

First Conviction for This Crime in Years.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Toole, Utah, May 12—William Strong was taken from here to Salt Lake City this morning to serve a sentence of six moths for conviction of bigamy, the first conviction of this kind in several years in this State. The church organ was active in his prosecution. The last arrest on the charge of bigamy was never tried, the case being finally dismissed.

The President Spends a Quiet Day.

Hot Springs, Va., May 11—President McKinley ventured from his apartments and the porches on each side of them only twice to-day, except for his bath. Each time he went for a short walk with Secretary Gage about the grounds, once in the forenoon and again after lunch. His method of exercise is becoming known to the natives and today several summoned sufficient courage to address the Chief Executive, in each case receiving a hearty handshake.

BURIAL OF MR. SCHENCK.

Attended by a Large Concourse of Friends—The Floral Offerings.

The sadness of death was perhaps never more forcibly exemplified than in the death of David Schenck, Jr., which was announced in these columns yesterday. Cut down in the bloom and vigor of young manhood, with a bright future before him—truly the ways of Providence are beyond the comprension of man.

The funeral services were conducted today at 11 o'clock by Rev. E. W. Smith and Rev. Horace Weeks Jones. The services at the residence began with "Jesus, Lover of my Soul" sung as a quartette by Mrs. W. E. Allen, Mrs. R. G. Vaughan and Messrs. W. Frank Blount and Z. V. Taylor. A scripture lesson and prayer by Rev. Dr. Smith were followed by singing, "Abide With Me," by the quartette. The long procession then formed and the remains were carried to Greene Hill cemetery where "Rock of Ages" was sweetly rendered by the quartette and the beautiful, simple burial service of the Episcopal church was read by Rev. Horace Weeks Jones, and the mound was raised above the mortal casket forever stilled. The last sad rites were attended by people from every walk of life, showing the esteem in which deceased was held regardless of position.

The funeral offerings were beautiful and of artistic design, the most elaborate of which were presented by the members of the bar, who met and attended the funeral in a body, one from the Knights of Pythias, of which Mr. Schenck was a prominent member, one from the hunting club, one from Capt. B. J. Fisher, and several from numerous friends.

THE MEETING AT CENTENARY.

A Large Congregation Last Night and a Forcible Sermon.

Interest in the meetings being conducted at Centenary church, by Rev. T. E. Wagg, the faithful and energetic pastor, is increasing. There was a large congregation last night and Mr. Wagg's sermon was one of the most powerful he has preached since his lot was cast among us. Taking for his text "The Sting of Death is Sin" he delivered a sermon full of thought and deserving of the strictest attention.

The choir last night was large and the singing excellent and evidence of great interest was manifested in every particular.

Rev. J. E. Gay, of Charlotte, the former venerable pastor of the church, was present and led the meeting in an ardent and earnest prayer.

Mr. Wagg is doing a good work and deserves the heartiest co-operation and support of all Christian people in the city. The church should be packed tonight. The attendance at the 4'clook prayer meeting grows larger day by day.

Good Roads Club.

Editor Telegram: Who regrets the money he has contributed for public improvements in and around Greensboro? Good macadamized roads leading out to the country around our growing city would be worth hundreds of thousands of dollars to us as well as to the surrounding country. How are we going to get this work started? It is estimated that it will cost $1,500.00 per mile to build good macadamized roads. I would suggest the following plan and would be glad to hear from others: The county or township furnish $500.00 per mile, the property owners along the road $500.00 and that we organize a Good Roads Club to furnish $500.00. To raise this $500.00 we will wants subscriptions to 100 shares of $5.00 each per mile for the first 40 miles to be built, and both of our city dailies and the Greensboro Patriot will keep the names of subscribers before us until we get the 100 names, then we have the assurance that the county commissioners will take the matter up at once.

E. P. Wharton.

We the undersigned agree to subscribe the amount opposite our names for each mile of road to be macadamized outside of the city limits in the county of Guilford for the first 40 miles to be built, to be paid to the county commissioners as the work progresses:

THE RICHMOND CONVENTION

Was a Great Success And Will Result In Much Good.

IF A POPULAR ELECTION IS HELD

His Friends Think That Senator Martin Will Be Assured Of a Nomination

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, D C., May 12—Among prominent men in Washington Thursday was Hon. R. Walton Moore, who has been prominently mentioned in connection with the United States Senatorship, to succeed senator Martin. Mr. Moore was one of the promoters of the Richmond convention, and was in attendance at the conference. In speaking about the conference he said that the convention was a great success and he believes that it will result in much good, as it has set the people of the state, and of the south, to thinking upon this great question. He believes too that if the state democratic committee refuses to obey the voice of the conferdnce, and call for a popular convention to nominate candidates for the senate, that it will not be long before the democratic voters of the state take more vigorous methods to obtain what they believe to be their just rights and privileges.

It is rumored here that Senator Martin, if the state committee deem advisable, might not oppose the holding of a popular convention for the nomination of a candidate for the senate, as proposed by the conference. His friends say that if it is held he is assured of a nomination.

Several Virginia leaders returned to Washington Thursday from Richmond. In spite of the predictions of the anti-conventionites they say the conference was largely attended, and was enthusiastic in its expressions, and earnest in pressing the movement. Among the leaders here, it is believed that but little practical good will come out of this movement, so far as immediate results are concerned, for it is not believed that the Virginia democratic state committee will call for either primaries, or for a convention to nominate a candidate for the Senate, as proposed.

The Mount Vernon Ladies' Association which has charge of the Movon estate, met in annual session yesterday afternoon. The ladies, according to their custom, reside at the mansion during the sessions. There is one regent, Mrs. Justine, Van Rensselaer Townsend, of New York, and sixteen other vice-regents, representing as many States. Among those who have passed through Washington on their way to Mount Vernon, are vice-regents from North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, Louisiana, and Texas. The sessions of the association will continue for several days, during which time several important measures for the preservation and beautifying of the former home of Washington will be adopted.

From June 20th, to the 29th, will be held at Charlotte, N. C., the annual session of the Southern Biblical Assembly. The meeting takes place under the auspices of the American Society of Religious Education, and the leading divines of the South will be in attendance. Several prominent clergymen from this city also contemplate being in Charlotte in attendance upon the sessions of this assembly.

A large gathering is in Washington in attendance upon the thirty-ninth annual meeting of the Society of Mechanical Engineers. Among the delegates are several from Virginia, and other Southern States.

While in the city the visitors are enjoying themselves in visiting the various executive departments, monument, capital, white house, and other places of national interest. The meeting will continue its session until Friday night.

Miss Mollie Batchelor and her sister, Mrs. W. G. Owens, of Winston, North Carolina, who have been on a visit to Mrs Edgar Warfield, left yesterday for their home.

Mr. E. H. Kemper, assistant auditor of the Southern Railway, has also been appointed assistant auditor of the North Alabama Railway, which road recently became a part of the Southern.

Postmasters have been appointed in North Carolina as follows: Albert Downing, Beard, Cumberland county; Truman S. Webber, Dellinger, Cleveland county; Charles P. Edwards, Earpsboro, Johnston county; John Young, Glen Ayre, Mitchell county; Joseph E. Price, Iona, Robeson county; Henry L. Solomon, Ita, Halifax county; Philip R. Rickman, Leatherman, Macon county; Travis W. Foust, Levi, Davidson county; Thomas Starnes, McCains, Union county; Mrs. Lillie L. Stoop, Moravian Falls, Wilkes county; W. C. Meadows, Poors Knob, Wilkes county; Alexander McNeill, Wade, Cumberland county.

Mail messenger service in North Carolina has been discontinued at Goodwill, Forsyth county, from Atlantic and Yadkin Valley Railrod.

RALEIGH'S SMALLPOX.

Those Who Refuse to Be Vaccinated are Compelled to Submit.

No new cases of smallpox were reported yesterday, and it is hoped that the disease is now under control. The number of cases dismishes as vaccination progresses.

The Mayor yesterday morning issued four warrants for persons who had refused to be vaccinated, and to whom notices had then been sent, but who still had not complied. Sixteen such persons had been to the Mayor All, however, had afterwards complied except four and warrants were accordingly placed in the hands of an officer for their arrest. The warrants named three o'clock as the time for trial. Before that time arrived all of the stubborn ones had agreed to be vaccinated rather than go to jail, and quietly submitted. One man alone, G. M. Lindsey, held out. He appeared before Mayor Powell and agreed to leave town. He was permitted to do so.

Mayor Powell has issued fourteen notices to parties who refused to let Dr. Buffaloe vaccinate them. Warrants will be issued for those who have not complied this morning.

Work was begun this afternoon on a hospital for white patients. The building will consist of three rooms and will be located about one hundred yards from the house where the negroes are confined.—News and Observer.

A Snap.

All men and boys need clothing, some immediately and at a later day. Both of this class will find it interesting to themselves and their pocket books to look at the immense line of spring and summer clothing at the Fishblate-Katz Co., 306 and 308 South Elm street. Attention is called to their advertisement in this issue. Prices will be advertised from day to day. On account of extensive alterations in their building which may necessitate removing the stock to other quarters, the sale is exceptional in values this progressive firm offers.

OUR UNINSPIRED TROOPS.

Several American transports are en route home from the Philippines, not freighted with a victorious army, but loaded with troops who are sick and wounded unto death, unblamed victims of the unrighteous policy of the leaders of this government. Before the long and weary voyage across the water is over, many a poor boy, with no tender and loving hands to fold the pale hands across his breast, will have found a sailor's tomb, beneath the dark, restless waves.

Just one year ago yesterday, Ensign Worth Bagley, the brilliant young North Carolinian, yielded up his life, the first American officer to fall in the "war for humanity." A pall was cast over the nation at the death of one so young, so handsome and so brave. While our boys who are falling in the far eastern battlefield are as deeply mourned as the dead defenders of the oppressed Cubans, the cause for which they are dying is so far less esteemed, and so far just, that the men who made famous Cardenas and Santiago will ever be looked upon as the greater heroes.

There is no doubt that if the Spaniards or any other people were murdering the Filipinos and our troops had been sent across the seas to administer succor to the people who prefer death to the loss of their liberties, our soldiers, inspired by the glorious and Christian cause, would sweep everything before them as the wind scatters the chaff.

"Thrice is he armed that hath his quarrel just."

President McKinley is an inveterate smoker, and it is said that during his stay at the Hot Springs, he is trying to reduce his allowance of tobacco.—Exchange.

There is no need for the president to try to quit the habit. The people will make him smoke again next election.

Four men were killed in Mississippi in collecting a doctor's bill.—Richmond Times.

We are not informed of the number who were killed in the incurring of the bill, but suppose only one.

There is one thing Mr. Justice Walter Clark learned well when young: To say "no." A supreme court decision without having attached to its end his dissenting voice, would be a rare curio indeed.

Funston's name is said to be a terror to the poets. They can't find any thing that will rhyme with it.

WHAT MAKES A CITY.

Some Excellent Advice From the Pen of Mr. C. H. Ireland.

"Watchman, Tell Us of the Night, What the Signs of Promise Are."

It is said by those competent to know, that underlying Greensboro there is a solid granite foundation of many miles in width, and the depth has not yet been penetrated. I have thought of this recently and wondered why we, of this thrice blessed little city, did not take cognizance of nature and utilize this intimation for our perpetuity in our commercial and industrial relations. We are in the habit of hearing, yea, we have heard it until it has become a trite saying, "Greensboro is one of the coming towns of the South, and has a bright future before her." Let us look to our foundations. Not that foundations are all; but as necessary if we build permanently, and however good our foundations may be, let's bear in mind that foundations do not make structures, but it is the heaping of item on item, systematically planned, that makes a symmetrical structure at last. Now, one thing that we all have a way of doing, is to claim we are so centrally located we are bound to be a city. Central to what? There are localities in Central America that are centrally located with two continents to draw from. Localities do not make cities, however much they may contribute to them. Good farming localities at and near do not build cities, but are of immense value in keeping them up once they are built. The country adjacent to Greensboro is unsurpassed, I believe, in the world. Schools and colleges do not build cities, however much they may be necessary to perpetuating them when they are builded, and in no community, north or south, are people so blessed as they are in Greensboro in this particular.

Professional men do not build cities, they are the fruits of cities, and we have no cause to be nervous in comparing our professional men with other communites.

Merchants do not make cities. They grow as the city grows, and this class of our citizens may be termed the city's real barometers, for every city is great in proportion to its merchants. The merchant princes of the orient, the Mathers, Stewarts, Fields, Dodges, Wanamakers, and others of later years have done more to extend the scope and influence of the cities in which they reside than possibly any other class of its citizens. Our merchants are brought into close competition with those of other and larger cities throughout the country. Their works abide as a testimony to their ability

Banks do not make cities. They are financial measurers of their success. The three strong institutions of this kind in our city speak well for our present and lend promise to a greater future development. Then one may ask what does make a city. Answer people, what attracts people? Employment, labor, what kind of labor? All kinds, skilled and unskilled But the real development of the city depends upon the number and variety of those who convert raw material into manufactured articles. In other words, factories, manufactories, give us these and all our present accomplishments. Genius and location become the items which enable us to build the successful, substantial, well proportioned and symmetrical city, but unless the foundation is there, permanency can never be assured, and all the blow and buster about these other things will prove a delusion and a snare, and will like a bubble, burst and leave us at last worse than when he began. We have only to recall the events of the last few years in our unfortunate Virginia cities. Five years ago street cars, electric lights and buildings superior to any now in Greensboro, with populations greater than ours. Today many of them are deserted mansions, the home of bat and owl. Men shoot hares where they once "fleeced lambs" of a different kind. The opossum climbs electric light poles in search of fruit that never grew. and where once the busy hum of footsteps surged to and fro, the quiet bovine chews her cud and dreams in quiet solitude and wonders at the folly of man.

Why did not these cities prosper? They did once. They were located in a region than which the world never saw better. Many of them had schools, colleges, stores, merchants and every evidence of thrift and prosperity. Yea! many had the buildings for manufactories. Timber grew in plenty near. Iron ore in beds right under the city. Then why was it they retrograded? Simply because they failed to convert the raw material into manufactured articles. The harmony of their industrial music was destroyed by the lack of the deep bass in the hum of her machinery, the high treble of the spinning ring, the tattoo of hammer on anvil vise, and the cornet note of steam whistle calling a busy throng of men and women to labor and toil.

Let us take this to ourselves. Reader are you satisfied with our present factory achievements? Far be it from me to disparage one of our industries, even the smallest. Our wood-working factories, foundries, tobacco factories, overhaul and pant factories, cotton mills, finishing mills and knitting mills are all right as far as they go. The only thing they lack, is the application of the multiplication table. There is one idea I think we should all combat, that because we can't have large factories we will have none. I believe a half dozen small factories will do more to build up a city than one with the capacity of six. Start small factories, cultivate them until they grow large; locate them inside the city. This is what makes cities. The area of Greensboro is sufficient now to build a city of 100 thousand. Make such inducements inside that men will not go outside. I am aware that this may interfere with some of the corn fields, meadows and primeval forests that now adorn some of our streets. But tax them to make revenue, to induce factories to locate here, or else to furnish sites for manufacturing establishments. But, says some one, I am no capitalist, what can I do? I believe this is a matter that concerns every one, and every one should contribute his mite. I have a plan: Let every man in Greensboro set aside one-tenth of his income to invest in some manufacturing enterprise; look well into its investment, sow your mite in faith and good judgment and await developments. This may cost some inconvenience for the first year, but you keep it up five years and there will not be a man in our community whose income over and above what it now is that will not be more than sufficient for him to spare what he would now invest, but leave him a handsome surplus, which if properly directed, will yield him a handsome amount upon which he can depend in later years. Now stop, think, is this feasible? Then act. Build factories and manufactories. Let this be the watchword for the next years to come—factories, factories, factories.

Rheumatism Cured.

My wife has used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with great relief, and I can recommend it as a splendid liniment for rheumatism and other household use for which we have found it valuable.—W. J. Cuyler, Red Creek, N. Y.

Mr. Cuyler is one of the leading merchants of this village and one of the most prominent men in this vicinity. —W. G. Phippin, Editor Red Creek Herald. For sale by C. E. Holton.

"Be mine," pleaded the poetic lover, "and your path in life will be strewn with roses." "Humph! and have me getting a puncture on the thorns. Not much!" retorted Miss Sprockett, who was no novice in the pursuit of cycling.

If you suffer from tenderness or fullness on the right side, pains under shoulder-blade, constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, and feel dull, heavy and sleepy, your liver is torpid and congested. DeWitt's Little Early Risers will cure you promptly, pleasantly and permanently by removing the congestion and causing the bile ducts to open and flow naturally. They are good pills. Howard Gardner.

Stern parent—"Look here, miss; kindly explain how it happened that I saw young Spooner hugging you in the parlor last evening." Bright daughter—"Why, it must have been because he didn't know you were looking, papa."

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children. —W. A. Stroud, Popomoke City, Md. For sale by C. E. Holton.

"This story of yours, Scribbler, appears to me to lack crispness." "Well, don't blame me. If the critics didn't roast it properly that's not my fault."

Hoax—"That tailor of mine is an impudent fellow. He got hot when I called him down about my clothes." Joax—"Ah! made a fitting reply, did he?" "No; his remarks were as ill-fitting as the suit.

Two Magnificent $400 00 Upright Pianos Will be Closed Out at Sacrifice Prices.

Having closed upone of our agencies in a neighboring town, I offer for immediate sale as follows: Two strictly high grade, large size, beautiful toned, upright pianos, in artistic French walnut and Antique oak cases, respectively. The piano in oak case is very slightly store worn, it having been used in warerooms as a sample for about three months. Piano in French walnut case was shipped direct from factory for the use of a professional pianist and has seen only about six weeks of service. Both as good as new and fully guaranteed by a company worth millions. These pianos sell the world over for $400.00, but in this instance cost or former prices will not be considered. The factory says "sell" and they must go. Terms will be given if desired. For further particulars address

People who have once taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers will never have anything else. They are the "famous little pills" for torpid liver and all irregularities of the system. Howard Gardner.

Wig—"What's the matter, old man? You look worried." Wag—"So I am. I ventured to make a few disparaging remarks to our janitor, and he replied with heat." "Well?" "Well; if I can't get him to turn it off I'll have to move; that's all."

Baldness Can be Cured

just so long as there is a particle of vitality left in the hair roots. The fact that the head is smooth and shining is no positive proof that the roots beneath are dead.

Deep down beneath the skin, hair roots may yet exist, filled with latent vitality, and all that is required to develop them into a beautiful head of hair is the faithful application of the proper agents.

Seven Sutherland Sisters'

preparations furnish the easiest, surest and quickest way to ascertain if there is or is not latent life beneath a head bare of hair. Why not try them?

RAW AS BEEF FROM ECZEMA!

No Torture Equal to the Itching and Burning of This Fearful Disease.

Not much attention is often paid to the first symptoms of Eczema, but it is not long before the little redness begins to itch and burn. This is but the beginning, and will lead to suffering and torture almost unendurable. It is a common mistake to regard a roughness and redness of the skin as merely a local irritation; it is but an indication of a humor in the blood—of terrible Eczema—which is more than skin-deep, and can not be reached by local applications of ointments, salves, etc., applied to the surface. The disease itself, the real cause of the trouble, is in the blood, although all suffering is produced through the skin; the only way to reach the disease, therefore, is through the blood.

Mr. Phil T. Jones, of Mixersville, Ind., writes:

"I had Eczema thirty years, and after a great deal of treatment my leg was so raw and sore that it gave me constant pain. It finally broke into a running sore, and began to spread and grow worse. For the past five or six years I have suffered untold agony and had given up all hope of ever being free from the disease, as I have been treated by some of the best physicians and have taken many blood medicines, all in vain. With little faith left I began to take S. S. S., and it apparently made the Eczema worse, but I knew that this was the way the remedy got rid of the poison. Continuing S. S. S., the sore healed up entirely, the skin became clear and smooth, and I was cured perfectly."

Eczema is an obstinate disease and can not be cured by a remedy which is only a tonic. Swift's Specific—

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—is superior to other blood remedies because it cures diseases which they can not reach. It goes to the bottom—to the cause of the disease—and will cure the worst case of Eczema, no matter what other treatment has failed. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed to be free from potash, mercury or any other mineral, and never fails to cure Eczema, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, Cancer, Tetter, Rheumatism, Open Sores, Ulcers, Boils, etc. Insist upon S. S. S.; nothing can take its place.

Books on these diseases will be mailed free to any address by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

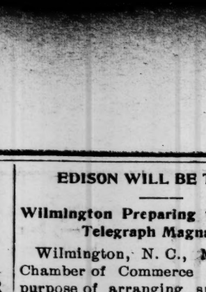
WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN.

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over thirty years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is, of course, regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst imaginable cases. It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take his advice and be well.



Mrs. R. D. Monfort, of Lebanon, Warren Co., O., writes: "I drop you a line this morning to let you know that I have received the Medical Adviser, and how very much pleased I am with it. A crisp, new five dollar bill could not tempt me to part with it."

On receipt of 21 one-cent stamps, to pay cost of mailing only, we will send free to any address a paper-bound copy of Dr. Pierce's great 1000 page book, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser." Or, the same book bound in fine French cloth will be sent for 10 cents extra to pay the cost of this more handsome and more durable binding. Address World's Dispensary Medical Ass'n, Buffalo, N. Y.

REUNION OF BLUE AND GRAY.

Movement to Bring About a Joint Reunion.

Charleston, S. C., May 11.—An effort is making here to bring about a grand reunion of Confederate and Union Veterans, and the matter will be formally presented to the Confederate Veterans Association now in session here. In the city are William Aiken, Jr., mayor of Evansville, Ind., Wm. Field, representing the Confederate Veterans of that city, and C. J. Murphy representing the Grand Army of the Republic, who are here for the purpose of arranging a joint reunion in Evansville in the near future. They will formally lay the plan before the convention and urge its fulfillment.

Seeking Rest, Or Health Or Pleasure?

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W.M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by C. E. Holton.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the liver is inactive you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good alterative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store. 50 cents per bottle.

Some girls seem to regard the stealing of a kiss as petty larceny, but there are more who consider it grand.

THE OLD REBS

Gave a Rebel yell and carried Charleston by storm. They have the right of way on all occasions; and in fact they are entitled to it. Just so with Harry-Belk Brothers Co.

They have carried Greensboro by storm—captured the whole city and country without encountering the slightest obstacle. We did not raise a Rebel yell to accomplish what we have done, but simply turned loose our "Gatlin gun" and shelled the woods. The same was loaded with panic goods. Railroad wrecks and the like brought them down at long range. To see the crowds flocking to our store you would think we had another Confederate here, but it is this Cuban warfare among prices liberates our bargain counters and, my, the way the way the masses are accepting the situation—freedom from the galling yoke of high prices and big profits is enough to stir the country from center to circumference. "Watch out!" Our buyer has been in New York and Boston for some time closing out shoe manufacturers, clothing merchants, dry goods stocks, etc, at often less than the cost of making. Going north at this season gives us a decided advantage over others, for all manufacturers are anxious to clean up the stocks on hand before the fall season opens. Few goods piling in every day.

Listen! Checks 2c, calico 2c, bleaching 4c, towels 2½c, lawns 2c, ladies' patent sandals 68c, worth $1.50; ladies' and children's Oxfords and slippers 25c up. Never before had goods so cheap. All we ask is for you to see them. It is like picking up dollars. We have bargains to offer you all our store, so if dollars are worth anything to you, you can save them by looking through our stock of dry goods, notions, shoes, hats, gents' furnishings, etc., much easier than you can make them, no matter how easy they come.

So hide out, little ones, and give the people the right of way to

JOHN HOLLAND ANGEL

Added to the Number of Jail Birds Yesterday.

A few days ago a negro youth, answering to the aristocratic name of John Holland Angel, hitherto a member of the tramping profession, presented his card, or at least introduced himself to a Greensboro gentleman, as the "best cook out of jail," and at once secured a job. John says he is from Danville. His employer was waxing exceeding fat on the food dressed by the angel when to his great disappointment, small but valuable articles began to disapear. It was not long before it was discovered that John was swiping things on every hand and yesterday John Holland Angel appeared in court, a warrant having been served by officer Weatherly. The prisoner submitted and handed over some highly prized old coins, which were among the articles appropriated. Jailer Reese is now entertaining an Angel, who maintains that he is a good cook.
